“Cha-Ching!” 17 Partner Agencies Cash-In on Funding:

Executive Director Tory Irgang helped present a check for $917, 132 to 17 United Way partner agencies tonight, during the 2011 Annual Meeting and Allocations Celebration. Irgang welcomed the agencies, along with allocations volunteers and members of the board, during the event held at the YWCA Lake Lodge.

“It’s my pleasure to present this check to our partner agencies. This money shows the heart of this community. Vital services will be able to continue, thanks to the generosity of those who gave during the 2010 Campaign.”

Irgang also thanked the allocations volunteers, who helped distribute the money raised through the United Way campaign.

“Our volunteers are the heartbeat of this community. Without their efforts, none of this would be possible. Their work is never easy, and their sacrifice is truly appreciated.”

Over $1.3 million dollars was raised in last year’s campaign, and Ms. Irgang said the 2011 United Way Campaign is already in full swing, with the launch of Pacesetters earlier this month. Through Pacesetters, 20 local businesses and organizations hope to raise 10-percent of the $1.3 million dollar goal by the end of August.
